

Campbelltown Bangladeshi Women's Group LUSOM had organised Australia's Biggest Morning Tea for the first time on Sunday 24 May 2009 at the Campbelltown Bangla School. They have raised altogether $1309.55; from donation $517 and from the food sale another $792.55. The entire money has been donated to the Cancer Council. LUSOM would like to thank all participants, volunteer and the Bangladeshi community at Campbelltown for their dedication in such a great community event.

