

URGENT MEDIA RELEASE

ABSCA Inc. wishes to inform all stake holders, visitors and patrons that after joint inspection by ABSCA, Council and other parties it has been determined Punchbowl Park is not usable for cricket final and Independence Day mela due to continuous heavy rain. The Council has declared the fields closed, ABSCA Inc. has to reschedule the cricket final and the mela.

Please note the new date:

Date: 2 April 2017 (weather permitting)

Venue: Punchbowl Park (Cnr Viola & Rose Street), Punchbowl

Time: 8.00am till 9.00pm

There will be NO CHANGE in the programme, rather some more exciting items will be added which will be announced soon.

ABSCA Inc. Chairman and the Board regret if any inconvenience has been caused for rescheduling of date due to this unavoidable circumstance.

ABSCA Inc. looks forward for your participation and can assure that the cricket final and Independence Day mela will be one of the biggest events on 2 April 2017 in Sydney which you cannot afford to miss.

Nasim Samad
President
Mob: 0433795968